

BELINGTON HOMECOMING

SATURDAY, AUGUST 6, 2011

This year's Belington Homecoming will be August 6" in downtown Belington and we have a day of fun planned for the entire family.

As we celebrate the 150th, Sesquicentennial Anniversary of the American Civil War, you will also be able to experience the Battle of Laurel Hill with activity at the Battlefield for the entire weekend. (See reverse side for Reenactment weekend events)

A special attraction this year will be the Cheat Mountain Salamander which will be making a very unique rail trip that you can board in Belington.

The trip originates in Elkins and stops to pick up passengers in Belington before resuming the trip to Tygart Junction. The highlight of the trip will be the return stop in Belington where you may just find yourself back in the Civil War in the middle of a train ambush. The train will resume its trip to Elkins after about an hour layover in Belington. For tickets go to www.mountainrailwv.com.
